

La prevención de la explotación sexual de la infancia y la adolescencia en los viajes y el turismo: una cuestión de derechos humanos y empresas

Organiza: Colabora: Financia:

23 de marzo de 2023.

JESÚS MARTÍN

Co-fundador y presidente

Aethnic – Asociación de Turismo Sostenible

CURRICULUM (Breve reseña del CV):

Jesús Martín, bachelor's in philosophy and a MsC of Responsible Tourism Management in The International Centre of Responsible Tourism (Leeds Beckett University). Professional experience in the Tourism Sector and leading projects on sustainable and responsible tourism, circular economy, and human rights. Jesús has a key expertise in pro poor tourism methodologies, has managed projects funded by the European Commission and the UN agencies for the last 5 years. Director and founder of Ethnic Sustainable Tourism Association.

Passionate since a very young age in community and social development and firm believer that alternative social oriented tourism is a key factor to face global challenges towards the achievement of the 2030 agenda.

