E-mail: sgreijer@pm.me o susanna@ecpat.org

CURRICULUM:

Dr Susanna Greijer (PhD) – International expert and consultant on the protection of children from violence

Dr Greijer works internationally as an independent research-, legal- and policy consultant. She is a senior legal advisor to ECPAT International and independent expert to the Council of Europe and also collaborates with the UN Special Rapporteur on the Sale and sexual exploitation of children, the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child, UNICEF, Children's Ombudspersons, Governments, and European Union agencies. Her work focuses in particular on the issues of violence (in particular sexual violence) against children, children in migration, as well as child participation and child-friendly procedures.

Dr Greijer holds a PhD and an LL.M. in International Law from the European University Institute in Florence and a Master's degree in International Affairs from Sciences Po Paris. Her PhD thesis focused on the crimes of recruiting and using children in armed conflict and addressed children's involvement in armed conflict from the perspectives of international human rights law, international humanitarian law and international criminal law. She also has experience working with children affected by armed conflict in Colombia.

Dr Greijer is a certified practitioner in equine-assisted therapy (training 2016-2018) focusing on relational and sensory development for children, adolescents and adults.
