CURRICULUM (Brief resume):

Gabriela Kühn is the Head of Child Protection in Travel and Tourism for ECPAT International and oversees the programme for the global network of 124 civil society organisations operating in over 100 countries to end the sexual exploitation of children. Gabriela brings fifteen years of experience working on children's rights, including at grass-root organizations that provide psychological and legal help to children victims of trafficking and sexual exploitation. In her current role she works with global and regional intergovernmental bodies, governments, law enforcement and business to improve child protection in travel and tourism context.
